ORDER

Shri. Sushilkumar Gajanan Sawant the applicant had preferred an initial application dtd. 27.2.2009, before the Public Information Officer, Maharashtra Pollution Control Board, asked information about 1) the time required for issuing final Seniority List after receipt of the objections from various employees as well as the method / procedure for finalizing the Seniority list and 2) the information about methodology being adopted / followed in case the temporary seniority list has been issued and if objections are not received in respect of the temporary seniority list. The applicant also asked the time required to issue the final seniority list in case no objections are received.

The Public Information Officer called information from the Establishment Department vide letters dtd. 2.3.2009, but not received any information from the Establishment Department within the stipulated time.

Therefore, the appellant made appeal before the Appellate Authority on 30.3.2009. The Appellate Authority given an opportunity of personal hearing to the appellant on 22.4.2009 at 3.00 p.m..

During the course of personal hearing the appellant was made available the copies of the Documents/ Information, which is received by the Public Information Officer on 22.4.2009 from the Sr. Administrative Officer.

- 1) Sr. Administrative Officer by his letter dtd. 22.4.2009 given the information on point no.1 of the appeal that -generally 2-3 months time is required to prepare final seniority list after receipt of the objections. However, on account of administrative reasons, the delay may occur in issuance of such final seniority list while preparing final Seniority list of the concerned cadre.

The appellant was asked about whether any other information in this behalf is required. He was satisfied with the information.

- 2) The appellant further asked the information about the methodology being adopted / followed in case the temporary seniority list has been issued and if objections are not received in respect of the temporary Seniority list. The appellant also asked the time required to issue the final Seniority list in case no objections are received.

-Sr. Administrative Officer refers to the Circular No. MPC/EB/Desk-4/B-1107 dtd. 11.10.2007 and also made available copy thereof to the appellant.

Since the appellant has received the requisite information the appeal is disposed off.

Dated this 22nd April, 2009
