Chairman also said that there are a number of cases where some possession is given before C to O. In such cases, on issue of SCN it is often revealed that possession is given because of pressure from prospective home owners and stipulations under RERA. Chairman therefore suggested that a policy decision may be taken that in such cases, if the relevant conditions of EC are fulfilled and adequate PCS is installed, whether the issue of grant of C to O may be delinked from the issue of penal action for delay in applying for C to O. This issue may be taken up for deliberation in the CAC.
