ANNEXURE I

Draft minutes in respect of M/s.Maresk India Pvt Ltd, Sector-6, Dronagiri Warehousing Complex, Navi Mumbai

The Consent Committee discussed the proposal at length and taken into consideration the nature of the present activity. Regional Officer, HQ informed that the present activity is temporary facility for loading and unloading of containers and it is not storage terminal (Isolated storage) wherein, the chemicals are stored by emptying the containers.

The Committee Members asked, whether there is any other activity in the form of isolated storage, for which the permission is required under the EIA Notification, 2006. It was made clear that as per personal hearing extended before the Policy & Law Division and RO(HQ), the documents are submitted to the effect that the stack storage for containers has made application that they will not exceed the quantity of containers beyond the threshold quantity mentioned in the MSIHC Rules, 1989.

It was decided that after obtaining an undertaking on 100/- Rupees Stamp Paper about not to store any containers beyond the threshold quantity prescribed in the MSIHC Rules,1989 and to comply with other Environmental Norms, the Consent will be granted subject to the conditio

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
